NEW BUSINESS

APPROVE RESIGNATION AND SEPARATION AGREEMENT WITH SHELBY STEEN

Mr. Vanderwilt specified that he understands that this is the best decision for the district and while it is a private matter as a resignation for personal reasons by an employee, he is making this decision after doing his personal due diligence and speaking to the attorney. Mr. Morris echoed that he believes this is the right decision for students and staff. Mr. McGriff thanked Mrs. Livezey for the information she was able to provide and for the guidance of administration.

A motion was made by Vanderwilt and seconded by Morris to approve the resignation of and separation agreement with Shelby Steen. Motion carried.

Mrs. Livezey explained that communication will be sent to parents and staff tomorrow regarding the resignation.

ADJOURN

A motion was made by Morris and seconded by McGriff to adjourn the meeting at 6:07 p.m. Motion carried.
